Articulation Agreement
Between
Argosy University/Washington, DC and Prince George’s Community College

Argosy University/Washington, DC (AU/DC) and Prince George's Community College (PGCC), in order to provide accessible, high quality educational opportunities to students, hereby enter into the following agreement.

(1) AU/DC agrees to accept into its Bachelor of Arts degree completion program students with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher who have completed the Associate of Arts (AA) or Associate of Science (AS) degree from PGCC.
   - These students will be considered to have fulfilled all lower division general education requirements at AU/DC and have guaranteed junior status.
   - The AA or AS degree transfers in its entirety, including D grades, as long as the cumulative GPA is 2.0 or better.
   - A maximum of 78 lower division or 90 total semester hours may be transferred.

(2) AU/DC welcomes students with the Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree, as well as students who have not completed a degree program, when they have met the following admissions requirements:
   - 42 credit hours with grades of C- or better (remedial or developmental courses are not applicable to the 42 hours)
   - GPA of 2.0 or higher for all academic work completed
   - 3 semester hours of English composition with a grade of C- or better
   - proof of high school graduation or GED

In cases where a student fails to meet minimum academic qualifications, credit hour requirements, or specific Argosy University stipulations for admission, Argosy has the authority to consider additional academic and other credentials of its choosing to determine eligibility for admission.

This agreement becomes effective with the signatures of all parties and shall continue in effect unless voided by either party with sixty (60) days prior written notice. AU/DC and PGCC will consider, in good faith, any amendments either party proposes. The agreement may only be amended in writing, with amendments signed by both parties.

The undersigned hereby agree to all provisions of this agreement.
