PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS
AND
PRINCE GEORGE'S COMMUNITY COLLEGE

High School Program: ACADEMY OF FINANCE
Community College Program: ACCOUNTING PROFESSIONAL, BUSINESS MANAGEMENT, BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION OR ACCOUNTING TRANSFER

This articulation Agreement has been developed to advance the opportunities of students in the Prince George's County Public School System who plan to continue their education at Prince George's Community College. The Agreement describes articulated programs that build on approved learning experiences and eliminates duplication of instruction.

Eligible College Courses for Articulated Credit:
- ACC 1000 Fundamentals of Accounting, (3 credits)
- BMT 1010 Introduction to Business (3 credits)

Requirements:

General Conditions
- Prince George’s Community College will grant college credit for one or more of the courses listed above to eligible students when they present appropriate credentials to the registration office and enroll in the ACCOUNTING PROFESSIONAL, BUSINESS MANAGEMENT, BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION OR ACCOUNTING TRANSFER at the college.
- The Student must complete an application for admission and be accepted to the college to receive credit. There will be no charge by the college to those students who receive credit for the eligible college course(s). However, the student is responsible for the application fee.
- No grade will be issued for college credits granted through the advanced placement procedures, only course credits will appear on the college transcript.
- The student will have the option to reject competency certification and instead, enroll in any of the community college courses identified.
- The student is required to take the college’s placement test (Accuplacer, and if applicable, the Michigan Test for ESL Placement). In some cases, appropriate SAT or ACT scores may be used.
- The student must attend Student Orientation, Advising and Registration (SOAR).

Specific Conditions
- The student will be granted credits for the community college courses listed above, provided the following conditions are met:
- The student must enroll and register at Prince George’s Community College in the program covered by this agreement and apply for articulated credit within two years of their high school graduation.
- The student meets the course prerequisites as specified in the PGCC catalog at the time of enrollment.
- The student has submitted the original Certificate of Articulated Credit along with a completed Request for Evaluation of Transfer Credits form.
