International Education Week • November 2015

at Prince George's Community College • 301 Largo Road, Largo, MD 20774 • Get directions at www.pgcc.edu

All events are in Largo Student Center (LSC) unless listed otherwise and are FREE and open to students, staff, faculty, administrators, and the public.

---

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5

12:30–1:45 p.m. and also 2–3:15 p.m.

Yoruba Andabo
A Cuban Ensemble
Afro-Cuban Religion and Culture workshop and presentation
Marlboro Hall, Room 1076
Sponsor: African American Studies Institute

---

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9 CONTINUED

11 a.m.–1:30 p.m.

Global Café
International Marketplace
Culture, food, music, dance
Community Rooms A, B, and C
Sign up by Nov. 4
TO DISPLAY your country table or TO PERFORM music or dance
Co-sponsors: International Education Center; Kaleidoscope Club; College Life Services

---

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10 CONTINUED

2–3:15 p.m.

PGCC International Faculty Tell Their Lessons Learned
Gleydi Wariiebi, English; Augustine Polumaine, Math; Rahila Siddiqui, ESL; Erica Sollosi, Library
Conference Room 2

---

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6

6–8 p.m.

Revolt, Rebellion, Resistance
Talk with local artists and leaders on Black Lives Matter
Rennie Forum
Sponsor: PGCC Student Publications Office

---

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9

10 a.m.

Campus Parade of Flags
The official start of International Education Week at Prince George's Community College!
9 a.m.—Meet at Community Rooms A, B, C to pick up flags
Wear traditional dress and comfortable shoes.
Sign up by Nov. 4
Co-sponsors: International Education Center; College Life Services

---

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10

9:30–10:45 a.m.

Addressing Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking
Mothyna James, Director of Community Education Turnaround, Inc.
Conference Room 2

---

3:30–6 p.m.

Discussion: The Biafra War—An Overview
Led by Professor J. Shango and Dr. Melinda Frederick
Rennie Forum
Sponsors: PGCC Book Bridge Project; African American Studies Institute
Film follows at 4 p.m.

---

Film: Half of a Yellow Sun
Based on the book by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie
Rennie Forum
Sponsor: Book Bridge Project

---

5:30–7:30 p.m.

Global Café
International Marketplace
Culture, food, music, dance
Community Rooms A, B, and C
Sign up by Nov. 4
TO DISPLAY your country table or TO PERFORM music or dance
Co-sponsors: International Education Center; Kaleidoscope Club; College Life Services

---

For information updates, contact the
International Education Center, Center for Health Studies, Room 1209 (off the lobby)
301-546-0750 | internationalcenter@pgcc.edu or go to www.pgcc.edu/go/internationalcenter

ALL advanced sign ups are at the International Education Center
All programs are sponsored by the International Education Center unless otherwise indicated.

©2015 PGCC. All rights reserved.
International Education Week • November 2015

at Prince George’s Community College • 301 Largo Road, Largo, MD 20774 • Get directions at www.pgcc.edu

All events are in Largo Student Center (LSC) unless listed otherwise and are FREE and open to students, staff, faculty, administrators, and the public.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11

10–11 a.m. and also 2–3 p.m.

Learning Our Viewpoints
Open informal student discussion: How do your beliefs influence how you treat (or avoid) outsiders?

Conference Room 2
Co-sponsors: International Education Center; President’s Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

11 a.m.–12 p.m.

Workshop: Global Possibilities
How to put a global reach into your career planning

Ms. Arlene Graham, president and founder
Caribbean Returning Nationals

Conference Room 2

12–1 p.m.

PGCC International Faculty Tell Their Lessons Learned
Gledy Wariebi, English; Kenneth Ojong, Sociology; Augustine Polumaine, Math

Conference Room 2

3–4:30 p.m.

Speed Faithing
An opportunity to learn about others’ traditions in 15 minutes or less

Community Room A
Sponsors: Better Together Interfaith Club; Secular Student Alliance

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12

12:30–1:45 p.m.

What makes our cultures so different?
Presentation by the Intercultural Communication class (SPH-2230) students

Conference Room 2
Sponsor: Communication and Theatre Department

2–4 p.m.

A Strained Relationship: The Tensions Between Africans and African-Americans
Panel Discussion

Conference Room 2
Sponsor: PGCC Book Bridge Project

6–9 p.m.

Reservations only
International Populations Network of Prince George’s County

Countywide Meeting/Proclamation Event
County Executive and County Council recognition

► RSVP by Nov. 5 at the International Education Center

Meeting followed by

Documentary Film: 14
How the 14th Amendment has protected citizenship for some African-American, Chinese American, and Latino Americans

Community Room C

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13

11 a.m.–12 p.m.

Tragedy and Prospects for South Sudan
The newest country in the world
Presented by PGCC Model UN members

Conference Room 2
Sponsor: PGCC Model UN Team

6–8 p.m.

PGCC Owls
Women’s Basketball vs. Cumberland County College, NJ
PGCC women’s team played in the NJCAA Nationals last year

Novak Field House (Gym)

For information updates, contact the International Education Center
Center for Health Studies, Room 1209 (off the lobby)
301-546-0750 | internationalcenter@pgcc.edu

or go to www.pgcc.edu/go/internationalcenter

► ALL advanced sign ups are at the International Education Center

All programs are sponsored by the International Education Center unless otherwise indicated.

← Week’s activities continued from other side