

ADULT EDUCATION

National External Diploma Program (NEDP®)

Now that I have my test results for NEDP, what is my next step and how can PGCC Adult Basic Education help me?

Congratulations on making the first step towards your high school diploma. You tested for NEDP but your scores were not quite high enough to qualify just yet. So now we are going to guide you through the learning process in order to open the door to NEDP and eventually receiving a high school diploma. Here's what you can do:

- Check the website → pgcc.edu/go/ged for Registration dates.
- Don't be late! Register for the next semester on time.

- Sign-up for a FREE GED Ready™ Practice Test offered by PGCC Adult Education.
- Email us at ged@pgcc.edu for dates and times or check the website: pgcc.edu/go/ged

- Sign-up for a GED Practice Test at www.ged.com. There is a $6 charge for each test.
- If your GED Practice Test score is 150 or more, you may be ready for the official GED® Test. You can also sign-up for the official GED® test also at www.ged.com
- With the new GED Test, you can take one test at a time!

- If you have passed one or more official GED® tests, please contact Ms. Linda Cheek, adulteducation@pgcc.edu concerning additional study resources.

- Sign-up for Tutoring by contacting Ms. Jill Hall at halljf@pgcc.edu

- Attend the tutoring classes regularly
