4. DO HOMESCHOOL AND PRIVATE SCHOOL STUDENTS QUALIFY FOR THIS OPPORTUNITY?

Homeschool and Private school students qualify for the Concurrent Enrollment Program at PGCC. More information is available at www.pgcc.edu/go/highschool.

5. DO PGCPS NONPUBLIC SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDENTS QUALIFY FOR THIS OPPORTUNITY?

Yes. Contact Chandra Watson at chandra.watson@pgcps.org for additional information.

6. HOW DO I ENROLL IN THE DUAL ENROLLMENT PROGRAM AT PGCC?

Students must do the following:

- > Demonstrate college readiness (Accuplacer, ACT and/or SAT scores may be used to determine readiness for college level work).
- > Complete the special PGCC dual enrollment online application that is e-mailed to qualifying students via their PGCPS e-mail accounts.
- > Schedule a meeting with their professional high school counselor, review requirements, and select courses.
- > Complete the Dual Enrollment Form (signatures required).
- > Submit a completed Dual Enrollment Form and supplemental documents to their professional high school counselor by the established deadline.

7. WHAT IS THE ACCUPLACER PLACEMENT TEST?

Accuplacer is a college placement test accepted for admissions to some colleges and universities. PGCPS students who meet the initial dual enrollment requirements have the opportunity to take the test at their high school.

- > Students may take the test once per semester.
- > Students who have taken the exam in previous semesters, and are satisfied with their scores, do not have to retake the test.
- > Students should study for the Accuplacer. Sample Accuplacer questions are available at:
 - » <http://accuplacer.collegeboard.org/students>

8. WHERE CAN I TAKE THE ACCUPLACER PLACEMENT TEST?

ALL PGCPS students who qualify for Dual Enrollment must take the Accuplacer placement test at their high school.

9. WHAT IF I MISSED THE TESTING SESSION AND WANT TO TAKE THE PLACEMENT TEST?

Contact your high school regarding possible make-up test dates.

10. WHAT IF I AM NOT SATISFIED WITH MY PLACEMENT TEST SCORES?

PGCPS dual enrollment students will be offered the opportunity to take the test for a second time at their high school in following semesters. Students should contact their testing coordinator for available test dates.

11. WHAT COSTS AM I RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYING?

- > PGCPS will cover the cost of tuition for all eligible students. Applicable fees and textbook expenses are the responsibility of the student. Visit the “Paying for College” page at www.pgcc.edu for current fee prices.
- > PGCPS will cover the cost of tuition, applicable fees, and textbook expenses for students who receive free and reduced meals (FARMS).

12. WHERE CAN I FIND THE DUAL ENROLLMENT APPLICATION AND DUAL ENROLLMENT FORM?

A link to the PGCC Dual Enrollment online application will be e-mailed to qualifying students via their PGCPS e-mail accounts. This special Dual Enrollment online application must be completed first.

The Dual Enrollment Form is available online at www1.pgcps.org/dualenrollment or www.pgcc.edu/go/highschool or through your professional school counselor. The form must be signed by the counselor, principal, parent/guardian, and student. The form will be collected by the student’s PGCPS counselor.

13. ARE TRANSPORTATION AND MEALS PROVIDED?

- > Students/parents are responsible for transportation to and from the college campus.
- > Meals are not provided to students, there are available dining options, for purchase, on and off the campus.

14. WHAT HAPPENS IF I FAIL OR WITHDRAW FROM A COURSE?

- > PGCPs reserves the right to charge students who receive a course grade of an “E” or “F”, or who withdraw from a course, 90% of the tuition paid. PGCPs also reserves the right to not pay for future courses.
- > For dual credit courses, an “E” or “W” will appear on the student’s high school transcript.
- > For all courses, an “F” or “W” will appear on the student’s college transcript.

15. WHAT OCCURS IF I DON’T ATTEND OR STOP ATTENDING A CLASS I AM REGISTERED FOR?

- > If you do not attend or participate in a class you were registered for within the first three weeks or equivalent 20% of class, you will receive an “NA” grade for nonattendance. Once this grade is assigned you can no longer attend the class. You will still be responsible for any applicable fees associated with the class.
- > If you participate in the class and then stop attending without officially withdrawing, you will receive an “FX” grade for failure due to ceased attendance. You will still be responsible for any applicable fees associated with the class.

16. WHAT EFFECT CAN MY GRADES FROM DUAL ENROLLMENT HAVE ON ME IN THE FUTURE?

- > The grades you earn while participating in the Dual Enrollment program are part of your official college record. You are establishing your college GPA and course completion record.
- > Even though current high school students are not eligible to receive financial aid, your performance in college classes now will contribute to your eligibility for financial aid after high school graduation. In order to be eligible for financial aid, you must make satisfactory academic progress (SAP), as demonstrated by GPA and course completion record. Please see the current Prince George’s Community College Academic Catalog for further information on SAP policies (available at www.pgcc.edu).
- > Furthermore, if you are taking courses for dual credit and/or for high school graduation requirements, your grades may impact your high school record and graduation eligibility.

17. CAN I TAKE COURSES AT LOCATIONS OTHER THAN THE MAIN PGCC CAMPUS IN LARGO?

Yes. Students may take courses on the main PGCC campus in Largo and at PGCC Extension Centers.

http://www.pgcc.edu/Campus_Info/Extension_Centers/Extension_Centers.aspx

- > Main Campus | Largo
- > Laurel College Center (LCC) | Laurel
- > University Town Center (UTC) | Hyattsville
- > Joint Base Andrews (AAFB) | Joint Base Andrews—Camp Springs
- > Oxon Hill High School (OHHS) | Oxon Hill

18. WILL PGCPs PAY FOR MORE THAN ONE COURSE PER SEMESTER?

Yes. Courses must be approved by your Professional School Counselor.

19. CAN I TAKE NON-CREDIT, WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COURSES?

Yes. Courses must be approved by your Professional School Counselor.

20. WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DUAL ENROLLMENT AND DUAL CREDIT?

- > Dual Enrollment: Students are enrolled in high school and college courses.
- > Dual Credit: Students are enrolled in high school and college courses; and receive both high school credit AND college credit.
 - Limited, pre-approved list of PGCC courses for dual credit is available at:
<http://www1.pgcp.org/dualenrollment/>

- Dual credit course grades are weighted on the high school transcript

21. CAN I TAKE COURSES IN NON-TRADITIONAL FORMATS?

- > Dual enrollment students may take courses using one or more of the following modalities:
 - Traditional, face-to-face in 5- to 15-week formats
 - Hybrid, which combines face-to-face and on-line, in 5- to 15-week formats
 - On-line, after a student has successfully earned 6 credits at PGCC with a GPA of 2.5
 - Weekend, which meet only on Saturdays or only on Sundays
- > Dual enrollment students may not take “weekender” courses, which meet Friday evenings and all day on Saturdays, denoted by section numbers with LW or XW.

22. IF I AM A CONTINUING DUAL ENROLLMENT STUDENT AT PGCC, DO I NEED TO FILL OUT THE APPLICATION AND REGISTRATION FORM AGAIN?

You do not need to complete the on-line application again.

You do need to complete the registration form for each semester you are enrolled.

23. WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AP AND IB CLASSES AND DUAL ENROLLMENT?

- > Dual enrollment courses are taken on a PGCC campus, they are taught by college professors, and students are in class with other college students. College credit is earned by receiving a passing grade in the class.
- > AP and IB courses are taken at the student’s high school, they are taught by high school faculty, and students are in class with other high school students. College credit is earned by receiving a passing score on the AP or IB tests at the end of the course.

24. WHERE CAN I FIND INFORMATION ABOUT SUPPORT FOR A DISABILITY?

- > Students should review information about PGCC’s Disability Support Services at www.pgcc.edu/go/dss and contact them about requesting accommodations.

25. ARE DUAL ENROLLMENT STUDENTS ABLE TO PARTICIPATE IN CAMPUS ACTIVITIES?

- > Students with a valid PGCC student ID are allowed to participate in campus activities, including clubs and events. However, current high school students may not participate in Athletics.

26. WHAT COMES AFTER DUAL ENROLLMENT? WILL MY CREDITS TRANSFER TO OTHER COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES?

- > Most courses will transfer to other colleges and universities. However, students should consult degree requirements to ensure a course is required for their major of interest.
- > Students interested in attending a Maryland state public college or university may consult www.artsys.usmd.edu for course transfer guidelines.
- > Students who successfully completed at least one dual enrollment course and maintained a 2.5 cumulative college GPA may be eligible for the Dual to Degree Program and a 50% tuition assistance grant to complete their associate degree at PGCC. Visit www.pgcc.edu/dualtodegree for more information.
