PRINCE GEORGE'S
COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Transforming lives.

Charlene M. Dukes
President

Prince George's Community College thrives on partnerships with government agencies, corporations and small businesses to develop mutually advantageous strategies to meet the needs of employers. At its biennial awards dinner, the Prince George's Community College Foundation, Inc. recognizes individuals and corporate partners that have demonstrated shared responsibility in transforming the lives of students through accessible, affordable, and rigorous learning experiences.

Prince George's Community College

Prince George's Community College provides high quality education and training for all who seek it. From new high school graduates to career seekers and senior citizens, students represent a wide range of ages, backgrounds and goals. Serving more than 44,000 individuals annually, the college is the first choice for higher education for residents of Prince George's County. Classes are easily accessible on the main campus in Largo and extension centers at Joint Base Andrews, Camp Springs, Hyattsville, Westphalia, and Laurel, as well as online. Collaborative partnerships, responsive degree and training programs, and a commitment to student success enable Prince George's Community College to address diverse education and workforce development demands.

Prince George's Community College Foundation, Inc.

The Prince George's Community College Foundation, Inc. is operated exclusively as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization for the charitable purpose of furthering educational programs, facilities and opportunities at Prince George's Community College by providing financial resources to meet its goals and objectives. Funds are used for scholarships, academic programs and activities, faculty research and development, student services and events, college facilities and equipment, and other needs.
